

COMPANIES ACT
(CHAPTER 50, SECTIONS 12A (1A), (1B) AND 411)
COMPANIES (FILING OF DOCUMENTS) REGULATIONS

[13th January 2003]

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Citation

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Companies (Filing of Documents) Regulations.

Definitions

2. In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires —
"agent" means —

(a) any person named in a memorandum of appointment or power of attorney lodged under section 368 (1) (e) of the Act; or

(b) an agent appointed under section 370 (5) of the Act;

"electronic filing system" means the electronic filing system provided by the Registry of Companies for the purposes of lodging documents with the Registrar under the Act;

"form" means an electronic form provided on the electronic filing system;

"lodge" means to lodge, file or submit a form or other document electronically.

PART II

GENERAL MATTERS

Forms

3. —(1) The forms prescribed for the purposes of lodgment with the Registrar under the Act shall be those provided on the electronic filing system at <http://www.bizfile.gov.sg>.

(2) The Registrar may issue such other forms as he thinks fit for the purposes of the Act.

(3) The Registrar may make any modification or amendment necessary to any form for the purpose of facilitating the lodgment of that form.

(4) Where strict compliance with a form is not possible, the Registrar may allow that form to be complied with in such other manner as he thinks fit.

(5) Any form and any relevant accompanying document to be lodged with the Registrar under the Act shall be lodged using the electronic filing system.

(6) Where lodgment of any form or document using the electronic filing system is not possible, the Registrar may allow that form or document to be lodged in such other manner as he thinks fit.

Directions in forms

4. —(1) A form shall be completed and lodged in accordance with such directions as are specified in that form or by the Registrar.

(2) Unless otherwise required, all particulars to be inserted in a form shall be in the English language.

(3) The Registrar may refuse to accept any form that is not completed or lodged in accordance with this regulation.

Fees

5. —(1) The fee payable to the Registrar in respect of the lodgment of a form with the Registrar shall be paid at the time that the form is lodged, unless otherwise directed by the Registrar.

(2) Payment of fees shall be made in such manner as the Registrar may direct.

(3) Where a form requires endorsements by more than one person, such endorsements shall be made within 3 calendar days from the date of the lodgment, and payment of the prescribed fee shall be made by the last person endorsing the form.

(4) Any failure to pay the prescribed fee in paragraph (1) shall render void the lodgment referred to in that paragraph.

Prescribed person

6. —(1) For the purposes of the Act, a prescribed person is —

(a) an advocate and solicitor;

(b) an accountant registered with the Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Singapore;

(c) a member of the Association of International Accountants (Singapore Branch);

(d) a member of the Institute of Company Accountants, Singapore;

- (e) a member of the Singapore Association of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators;
- (f) a corporate secretarial agent;
- (g) a member of such other professional association as may be approved by the Minister and published by notification in the Gazette;
- (h) in a matter under these Regulations other than the incorporation of a company or the registration of a foreign company —
- (i) an employee of a service bureau who is approved by the Minister as a prescribed person; or
- (ii) an employee of the firm or corporation in which a prescribed person referred to in sub-paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d), (e), (f) or (g) is a partner or is employed, if —
 - (A) the employee is authorised by the prescribed person to act on that prescribed person's behalf in the matter; and
 - (B) the employee is, in the opinion of the prescribed person, someone who has the knowledge and experience relevant to that matter; or
- (i) any other person who, in the opinion of the Minister, is a fit and proper person to be a prescribed person.

(2) In this regulation —

"corporate secretarial agent" means a person who is carrying on the business of corporate secretarial services for one or more companies and who has been a secretary of a company for at least 3 years of the preceding 5 years;

"service bureau" means a service bureau which the Registrar has authorised to be established for the purpose of assisting in the lodgment of documents using the electronic filing system.

PART III

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO DOCUMENTS ATTACHED TO FORMS

General requirements for documents lodged with Registrar

7. —(1) Any document which is to accompany a form to be lodged with the Registrar shall —

- (a) comply with such directions as are specified by the Registrar; and

(b) be lodged in accordance with such directions as are specified in that form or by the Registrar.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (1), the directions specified in the form or by the Registrar may provide for the format in which the document is to be lodged.

Verification and certification of documents

8. —(1) The copy of the contract to be lodged under section 63 (4) of the Act shall be certified by an advocate and solicitor, an accountant or a prescribed person declaring that he has compared the copy with the original contract and that it is a true copy of the contract of which it purports to be a copy.

(2) For the purpose of paragraph (1), the certification may be made on the copy of the contract, and the copy shall be signed and dated by the advocate and solicitor, accountant or prescribed person and shall contain the name of the advocate and solicitor, accountant or prescribed person, as the case may be, and the name and address of his firm or corporation, if applicable.

(3) A copy of the report of the result of the meeting to be lodged by a judicial manager under sections 227N (3) or 227P (5) of the Act and of a certificate or other document annexed to the report, shall be a copy verified in writing by the judicial manager to be a true copy of the original report and of that certificate or document.

(4) The affidavit verifying a statement of affairs of a company referred to in sections 224 (2) and 227L (2) of the Act shall be in accordance with the applicable form.

(5) For the purpose of section 270 (1) of the Act, a statement of affairs of a company shall be verified by affidavit in accordance with the applicable form sworn or affirmed by the person who lodges, or by one of the persons who lodges, the statement to the Official Receiver or the liquidator of the company, as the case requires, under section 270 (2) of the Act.

Agent's authority to be lodged

9. Where a statement in lieu of prospectus lodged with the Registrar under section 59 (1) of the Act is signed under section 60 (1) (a) of the Act by a person authorised in writing by a director or proposed director, the authorisation or a verified copy of the authorisation shall be annexed to the statement.

Signed copies of statutory report and auditor's report thereon required for lodgment

10. For the purposes of section 174 (5) of the Act —

(a) the copy of the statutory report of a company to be lodged with the Registrar shall be a copy that is certified under section 174 (3) of the Act by the personal signatures of not less than 2 directors; and

(b) the copy of the auditor's report on a statutory report referred to in paragraph (a) to be lodged with the Registrar shall be a copy that is personally signed by the auditor or, where the auditor is a firm, by one of the partners of that firm.

Certified copies of statements of affairs

11. The copy of the statement of affairs of a company to be lodged with the Registrar shall be a copy certified in writing to be a true copy of the original statement —

(a) in the case of a copy lodged for the purposes of section 223 (1) (c) (i) of the Act, by the receiver or manager of the property of the company; and

(b) in the case of a copy lodged for the purposes of section 270 (3) of the Act, by the liquidator of the company.

Certified translations of documents

12. —(1) For the purposes of section 397 of the Act, "certified translation" means a translation that —

(a) in the case of a translation made outside Singapore —

(i) is certified by an official to whom the custody of the original instrument, certificate, contract or document is committed, being an official holding or purporting to hold an office corresponding to that of the Registrar in the place in which the corporation is formed or incorporated;

(ii) is certified by a notary public or a translator duly admitted and sworn in accordance with the law of the place in which the corporation is formed or incorporated; or

(iii) is certified by a Singapore consular officer in the place in which the corporation is formed or incorporated; or

(b) in the case of a translation made within Singapore, is certified by a person approved by the Registrar to be a correct translation in the English language.

(2) The Registrar may, before accepting a translation for lodgment, require the person lodging the translation to furnish to the Registrar such evidence as the Registrar thinks sufficient of the ability of the person by whom the translation is made to make the translation.

(3) In this regulation, “Singapore consular officer” means a Consul or a person performing consular functions on behalf of the Government.

Time for lodging documents

13. Where a form or document is required under the Act or these Regulations to be lodged with the Registrar but a period of time within which that form or document is to be lodged is not prescribed, that form or document shall be lodged —

(a) within 30 days; or

(b) in the case of a form or document required to be lodged by a foreign company, within such further period as the Registrar may in special circumstances allow, after the occurrence of the event to which the form or document relates.

Affidavit and statutory declaration

14. —(1) Except as otherwise provided in the Act, these Regulations or in any form, an affidavit or a statutory declaration sworn or declared for the purposes of the Act or these Regulations on behalf of a corporation shall be sworn or declared by a director or the secretary of the corporation.

(2) Where an affidavit or a statutory declaration prescribed by the Act or these Regulations purports to be sworn or declared at a place outside Singapore, the affidavit or statutory declaration shall be sufficient for the purposes of the Act or these Regulations if it purports to be sworn or declared in accordance with the requirements of the law of that place.

(3) The affidavit verifying the account of receipts and payments by the receiver or manager under section 225 (1) of the Act need not be lodged with the form if the lodgment is personally done by the receiver or manager concerned and he declares in that form that the accounts and statements are true and correct.

Service of documents on Official Receiver

15. A form lodged with the Registrar in compliance with sections 270 (3), 295 (4), 308 (3) and (4), 316 (1) and (3) and 317 (1) of the Act shall be deemed to have been lodged with the Official Receiver upon payment of the prescribed fees for both the lodgments.

PART IV

INCORPORATION OF COMPANIES AND RELATED MATTERS

Documents for incorporation

16. For the purposes of section 19 (1) (a) of the Act, a person desiring the incorporation of a company shall submit the application in the applicable form and furnish the Registrar with such information as is required in that form.

Fee for incorporation of company

17. For the purposes of section 19 (1) (c) of the Act, a person desiring the incorporation of a company shall pay the Registrar the applicable fee specified in the Second Schedule to the Act.

Confirmation of consents to be lodged electronically

18. Where an advocate and solicitor, an accountant or a prescribed person has been engaged for the purposes of incorporating a company, he shall confirm in the manner determined by the Registrar —

- (a) the consent of a person to act as a director;
- (b) that the person is not disqualified from acting as a director under the Act; and
- (c) the consent of a person to act as a secretary, and lodge such confirmations with the Registrar.

Notice of incorporation

19. For the purposes of section 19 (4) of the Act, the Registrar shall issue a notice of incorporation via electronic mail, as set out in Part I of the Schedule, to the applicant upon the successful incorporation of the company.

Notice of commencement of business

20. For the purposes of section 61 (3) of the Act, the Registrar shall issue a notice of commencement of business via electronic mail, as set out in Part II of the Schedule, to the applicant upon lodgment of the declaration under section 61 (1) (b) (iii) or (2) (c) of the Act with the Registrar.

PART V

FOREIGN COMPANIES

Certification or verification of documents required for registration of foreign companies

21. —(1) For the purposes of section 368 (1) (a) of the Act, a certified copy of a certificate referred to in that section is a copy that has, within the period of 3 months immediately preceding the day on which it is lodged with the Registrar or within such longer period as the Registrar permits, been certified to be a true copy by an official holding or purporting to hold an office corresponding to that of the Registrar in the place in which the foreign company concerned is formed or incorporated.

(2) Where the certificate referred to in section 368 (1) (a) of the Act is an electronic document, the Registrar may accept a certified copy of a print-out of that certificate from an electronic database of an office corresponding to that of the Registry of Companies in the place in which the foreign company is formed or incorporated.

(3) For the purposes of section 368 (1) (b) of the Act, a certified copy referred to in that section, of a charter, statute or memorandum and articles or other instrument constituting or defining a foreign company's constitution, is a copy that has, within the period of 3 months immediately preceding the day on which it is lodged with the Registrar or within such longer period as the Registrar permits, been certified to be a true copy —

(a) by an official holding or purporting to hold an office corresponding to that of the Registrar in the place in which the foreign company concerned is formed or incorporated;

(b) by a notary public; or

(c) by a director, manager or secretary of the foreign company by affidavit or, in the case of a foreign company formed or incorporated within the Commonwealth, by statutory declaration made by a director, manager or secretary of the foreign company.

(4) In paragraph (2), “electronic document” means a document that is filed, served, delivered or otherwise conveyed by electronic transmission.

Manner of verification of memorandum of appointment, etc.

22. For the purposes of section 368 (1) (e) of the Act, a memorandum of appointment or power of attorney shall be verified by affidavit or, in the case of a foreign company formed or incorporated within the Commonwealth, by statutory declaration made by a person verifying that he was present and saw —

(a) the seal of the foreign company duly affixed to the memorandum of appointment or power of attorney; or

(b) the memorandum of appointment or power of attorney duly executed on behalf of the foreign company in such manner as to be binding on the company.

Manner of verification by statutory declaration

23. For the purposes of section 368 (2) of the Act, a statutory declaration of a copy of the deed or document referred to in that section shall be made by a director, manager or secretary, or by the agent, of the foreign company declaring that he has compared the copy with the original deed or document and that it is a true copy of the deed or document of which it purports to be a copy.

Notice of registration of foreign company

24. For the purposes of section 371 of the Act, the Registrar shall issue a notice of registration of a foreign company via electronic mail, as set out in Part III of the Schedule, to the applicant upon the successful registration of the foreign company.

Documents to be lodged where change or alteration is made

25. For the purposes of section 372 (1) of the Act, the documents that a foreign company is required to lodge with the Registrar are as follows:

(a) where any change or alteration is made in the charter, statutes, memorandum or articles of the foreign company or other instrument constituting or defining its constitution —

(i) a copy of the instrument effecting that change or alteration; or

(ii) a copy of the charter, statutes, memorandum, articles or other instrument as changed or altered,
in either case being a copy certified to be a true copy in the same manner as a copy is certified under regulation 21 (3) to be a true copy;

(b) where any change or alteration is made in the name of the foreign company —

(i) a copy of the certificate of its incorporation or registration in its place of incorporation or origin or a document of similar effect (being a certificate or document evidencing that change or alteration); or

(ii) where there is no such certificate or document, a copy of the instrument effecting that change or alteration,
in either case being a copy certified to be a true copy in the same manner as a copy is certified under regulation 21 (3) to be a true copy; and

(c) where any change or alteration is made in the powers of any director resident in Singapore who is a member of the local board of directors of the foreign company, a memorandum duly executed by or on behalf of the foreign company stating the powers of the local directors as changed or altered.
