Navigating the new Bizfile: Manage Striking Off

The "Manage striking off" eService allows lodgers who have applied to strike off their entity to withdraw their application.

- The striking off application can only be withdrawn if it has been approved for processing, including obtaining all required endorsement where applicable.
- Only the applicant who submitted the striking off application can withdraw it.
- For CSP firms, the individual lodger must be from the same CSP that submitted the initial striking off application.

Refer to the table below to determine who can apply to withdraw the striking off application.

Transaction	Who can withdraw
