Navigating the new Bizfile: Submit Objection against Striking Off

The "Submit objection against striking off" eService allows individuals, corporate entities and Corporate Service Providers (CSP) to file objections against applications to strike off local companies, limited liability partnerships and foreign companies from the register.

Before applying, ensure that

- The entity that you wish to object to has not already been struck off.
- If submitting an objection on behalf of a business, company, limited liability partnership, or corporate service provider, ensure that the entity has a "live" status and is currently active or in operation.

Step-by-step instructions for submitting objection against striking off as an individual (self or representative)

Step 1: Log in to Bizfile using Singpass (Individual user) credentials.

Step 2: From the mega menu, select "Deregister". Select either "Local company" or "Limited liability partnership" tab, then select "Submit/Clear objection against striking off".
