- (b) words or expressions contained in this Constitution must be interpreted in accordance with the provisions of the Interpretation Act (Cap. 1), and of the Act in force as at the date at which this Constitution becomes binding on the company.

Share capital and variation of rights

7.—(1) Without prejudice to any special rights previously conferred on the holders of any existing shares or class of shares but subject to the Act, shares in the company may be issued by the directors.

(2) Shares referred to in paragraph (1) may be issued with preferred, deferred, or other special rights or restrictions, whether in regard to dividend, voting, return of capital, or otherwise, as the directors, subject to any ordinary resolution of the company, determine.

8.—(1) If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares, the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, whether or not the company is being wound up, be varied with —

- (a) the consent in writing of the holders of 75% of the issued shares of that class; or
- (b) the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class.

(2) The provisions of this Constitution relating to general meetings apply with the necessary modifications to every separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class referred to in paragraph (1), except that —

- (a) the necessary quorum is at least 2 persons holding or representing by proxy one-third of the issued shares of the class; and
- (b) any holder of shares of the class present in person or by proxy may demand a poll.

(3) Section 184 of the Act applies with the necessary modifications to every special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the class under paragraph (1).

9. The rights conferred upon the holders of the shares of any class issued with preferred or other rights are, unless otherwise expressly provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class, treated as being varied by the creation or issue of further shares which ranks equally with the shares of that class.

10. The company may on any issue of shares pay any brokerage that is permitted by law.

11.—(1) Except as required by law, no person is to be recognised by the company as holding any share upon any trust.

(2) Except as required by law or by this Constitution, the company is not bound by or compelled in any way to recognise —

(a) any equitable, contingent, future or partial interest in any share or unit of a share; or

(b) any other rights in respect of any share or unit of share, other than the registered holder's absolute right to the entirety of the share or unit of share.

(3) Paragraph (2) applies even when the company has notice of any interest or right referred to in paragraph (2)(a) or (b).

12.—(1) Every person whose name is entered as a member in the electronic register of members is entitled without payment to receive a certificate under the seal of the company in accordance with the Act.

(2) In respect of a share or shares held jointly by several persons, the company is not bound to issue more than one certificate, and delivery of a certificate for a share to one of several joint holders is sufficient delivery to all such holders.

Lien

13.—(1) The company has a first and paramount lien on —

(a) every share (that is not a fully paid share) for all money (whether presently payable or not) called or payable at a fixed time in respect of that share; and

(b) all shares (other than fully paid shares) registered in the name of a single person for all money presently payable by the person or the person's estate to the company.

(2) The company's lien, if any, on a share extends to all dividends payable on the share.

(3) The directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or partly exempt from paragraph (1) or (2), or both.

14.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the company may sell, in any manner as the directors think fit, any shares on which the company has a lien.

(2) No sale may be made under paragraph (1) unless —

(a) a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable;

(b) a notice in writing, stating and demanding payment of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, has been given by the company to the registered holder for the time being of the share, or the person entitled to the share by reason of the death or bankruptcy of the registered holder of the share; and

(c) a period of 14 days has expired after the giving of the notice in sub-paragraph (b).

15.—(1) To give effect to any sale of shares under regulation 14, the directors may authorise any person to transfer the shares sold to the purchaser of the shares.

(2) Subject to regulations 25, 26 and 27, the company must lodge a notice of transfer of shares in relation to the shares sold to the purchaser with the Registrar.

(3) The purchaser of any shares referred to in paragraph (1) is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money, and the purchaser's title to the shares is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings with respect to the sale of the shares.

16.—(1) The proceeds of any sale of shares under regulation 14 received by the company must be applied in payment of any part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable.

(2) Any remaining proceeds from the sale of shares must (subject to any lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale but which have become presently payable) be paid to the person entitled to the shares at the date of the sale.

Calls on shares

17.—(1) The directors may from time to time make calls upon the members in respect of any money unpaid on their shares, other than in accordance with the conditions of the allotment of the shares, if both of the following conditions are met:

(a) no call is payable at less than one month after the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call;

(b) at least 14 days' notice specifying the time or times and the place of payment is given by the company to the members.

(2) Each member must pay to the company at the time or times and place specified in the notice referred to in paragraph (1)(b) the amount called on the member's shares.

(3) The directors may revoke or postpone a call.

18.—(1) A call is treated as having been made at the time when the resolution of the directors authorising the call was passed.

(2) A call may be required to be paid by instalments.

19. The joint holders of a share are jointly and severally liable to pay all calls in respect of the share.

20.—(1) If a sum called in respect of a share is not paid before or on the day appointed for payment of the sum, the person from whom the sum is due must pay interest on the sum for the period beginning on the day appointed for payment of the sum to the time of actual payment of the sum at such rate not exceeding 8% per annum as the directors may determine.

(2) The directors may waive, wholly or in part, the payment of the interest referred to in paragraph (1).

21.—(1) Any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date is to be treated as a call duly made and payable on the date on which, by the terms of issue of the share, the sum becomes payable.

(2) In the case of non-payment of any sum referred to in paragraph (1), all the provisions of this Constitution as to payment of interest and expenses and forfeiture apply as if the sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

22. The directors may, on the issue of shares, differentiate between the holders as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.

23.—(1) The directors may, if they think fit, receive in advance from any member (if the member is willing) all or any part of the money uncalled and unpaid upon any shares held by the member.

(2) Upon the company receiving the money referred to in paragraph (1), the directors may (until the amount would, but for the advance, become payable) pay interest to the member at such rate not exceeding (unless the company in general meeting otherwise directs) 8% per annum as may be agreed upon between the directors and the member.

Transfer of shares

24.—(1) Subject to this Constitution, any member may transfer all or any of the member's shares by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form which the directors may approve.

(2) The instrument of transfer must be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferor remains the holder of the shares transferred until the name of the transferee is entered in the electronic register of members.

25.—(1) To enable the company to lodge a notice of transfer of shares with the Registrar under section 128(1)(a) of the Act, the following items in relation to the transfer of shares must be delivered by the transferor to the registered office of the company:

- (a) the instrument of transfer;
- (b) a fee not exceeding $1 as the directors from time to time may require;
- (c) the certificate of the shares to which the instrument of transfer relates;
- (d) any other evidence as the directors may reasonably require to show the right of the transferor to make the transfer.

(2) Upon receipt of the items referred to in paragraph (1), the company must, subject to regulation 26, lodge with the Registrar a notice of transfer of shares in accordance with section 128 of the Act and retain the instrument of transfer referred to in regulation 24.

26. The directors may decline to lodge a notice of transfer of shares with the Registrar if —

- (a) the shares are not fully paid shares;
- (b) the directors do not approve of the transferee; or
- (c) the company has a lien on the shares.

27. The lodging of any notice of transfer of shares with the Registrar for the purpose of updating the electronic register of members may be suspended at any time and for any period as the directors may from time to time determine, but not for more than a total of 30 days in any year.

Transmission of shares

28.—(1) Where a sole holder of shares of the company dies, the company may recognise only the legal personal representatives of the deceased as having any title to the deceased's interest in the shares.

(2) Where a joint holder of shares of the company dies, the company may recognise only the survivor or survivors of the deceased as having any title to the deceased's interest in the shares.

(3) Nothing in paragraph (2) releases the estate of the deceased from any liability in respect of any share which had been jointly held by the deceased with other persons.

29.—(1) Any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member may, upon such evidence being produced as may from time to time properly be required by the directors, elect to —

(a) be registered as holder of the share in the electronic register of members; or

(b) nominate another person to be registered as the transferee of the share in the electronic register of members.

(2) Despite paragraph (1), the directors have the same right to decline or suspend the lodging of a notice of transfer of shares with the Registrar for the purpose of updating the electronic register of members under regulations 26 and 27 as they would have had in the case of a transfer of the share by the member referred to in paragraph (1) before the death or bankruptcy of the member.

30.—(1) If a person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member elects to be registered as holder of the share in the electronic register of members, the person must deliver or send to the company a notice in writing signed by the person stating that the person elects to be registered in the electronic register of members as the holder of the share.

(2) If a person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of a member elects to nominate another person to be registered as the transferee of the share in the electronic register of members, the person must execute a transfer to that other person a transfer of the share.

(3) All the limitations, restrictions, and provisions of this Constitution relating to the right to transfer and the lodging of a notice of transfer by the company in relation to any transfer of shares are applicable to any notice referred to in paragraph (1) or transfer referred to in paragraph (2), as if the death or bankruptcy of the member concerned had not occurred and the notice or transfer were a transfer signed by the member.

31.—(1) Where the registered holder of any share dies or becomes bankrupt, the personal representative of the registered holder or the assignee of the registered holder's estate, as the case may be, is, upon the production of such evidence as may from time to time be properly required by the directors, entitled to the same dividends and other advantages, and to the same rights (whether in relation to meetings of the company, or to voting, or otherwise), that the registered holder would have been entitled to if the registered holder had not died or become bankrupt.

(2) Where 2 or more persons are jointly entitled to any share in consequence of the death of the registered holder, they are, for the purposes of this Constitution, treated as joint holders of the share.

Forfeiture of shares

32. If a member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment of the call or instalment of the call, the directors may, as long as any part of the call or instalment remains unpaid, serve a notice on the member requiring payment of the unpaid part of the call or instalment, together with any interest which may have accrued.

33. The notice under regulation 32 must —

(a) name a day (not earlier than 14 days after the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made; and

(b) state that, in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed, the shares in respect of which the call was made is liable to be forfeited.

34.—(1) If the requirements of a notice referred to in regulation 33 are not complied with, any share in respect of which the notice was given may, at any time after the notice is given but before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the directors passed for the purpose of forfeiting the share.

(2) Forfeiture under paragraph (1) includes all dividends declared in respect of the forfeited shares and not paid before the forfeiture.

35. A forfeited share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on any terms and in any manner as the directors think fit, and, at any time before a sale or disposition, the forfeiture may be cancelled on any terms as the directors think fit.

36.—(1) A person whose shares have been forfeited ceases to be a member in respect of the forfeited shares.

(2) Despite paragraph (1), the person referred to in that paragraph remains liable to pay to the company all money which, at the date of forfeiture, was payable by the person to the company in respect of the shares (together with interest at the rate of 8% per annum beginning on the date of forfeiture on the money for the time being unpaid if the directors think fit to enforce payment of such interest).

37. A statutory declaration in writing that the declarant is a director or the secretary of the company, and that a share in the company has been forfeited on a date stated in the declaration, is conclusive evidence of the facts stated in the declaration as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the share.

38.—(1) The company may receive the consideration, if any, given for a forfeited share on any sale or disposition of the forfeited share and may execute a transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed of (called in this regulation the transferee).

(2) Upon the company executing a transfer of the share in favour of the transferee, the company must lodge a notice of transfer of share with the Registrar under section 128 of the Act for the purpose of updating the electronic register of members to reflect the transferee as the registered owner of the forfeited share.

(3) The transferee is not bound to see to the application of the purchase money, if any, and the transferee's title to the share is not affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings with respect to the forfeiture, sale, or disposal of the share.

39. The provisions of this Constitution as to forfeiture apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which, by the terms of issue of a share, becomes payable at a fixed time as if the sum had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

Conversion of shares into stock

40. The company may by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting convert any paid-up shares into stock and reconvert any stock into paid-up shares.

41.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the holders of stock may transfer the stock or any part of the stock in the same manner, and subject to the same regulations, by which the shares from which the stock arose might, prior to conversion, have been transferred.

(2) The directors may from time to time fix the minimum amount of stock transferable and restrict or forbid the transfer of fractions of that minimum.

42.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the holders of stock have, according to the amount of the stock held by the holders, the same rights, privileges and advantages in relation to dividends, voting at meetings of the company and other matters as if they held the shares from which the stock arose.

(2) No privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the company and in the assets on winding up) is to be conferred by any aliquot part of stock on the holder of such stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage on the holder of such stock.

43. Provisions of this Constitution applicable to paid-up shares apply to stock, and references to "share" and "shareholder" in this Constitution are to be read as if they were references to "stock" and "stockholder", respectively.

Alteration of capital

44. The company may from time to time by ordinary resolution do any of the following:

(a) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital;

(b) subdivide its shares or any of them such that in the subdivision the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share is the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived;

(c) cancel the number of shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person or which have been forfeited, and diminish the amount of its share capital by the number of the shares so cancelled.

45.—(1) Subject to any direction to the contrary that may be given by the company in general meeting, all new shares must, before issue, be offered to all persons who, as at the date of the offer, are entitled to receive notices from the company of general meetings, in proportion, or as nearly as the circumstances admit, to the amount of the existing shares to which they are entitled.

(2) The offer must be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered, and limiting a time within which the offer, if not accepted, is treated to be declined.

(3) After the expiration of the time referred to in paragraph (2), or upon the person to whom the offer is made declining the shares offered, the directors may dispose of those shares in any manner as they think is the most beneficial to the company.

(4) The directors may dispose of any new shares which (by reason of the ratio which the new shares bear to shares held by persons entitled to an offer of new shares) cannot, in the opinion of the directors, be conveniently offered under this regulation.

46. The company may, by special resolution and with any consent required by law, reduce its share capital in any manner.

General meeting

47.—(1) An annual general meeting of the company must be held in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

(2) All general meetings other than the annual general meetings are called extraordinary general meetings.

48.—(1) An extraordinary general meeting may be requisitioned by —

(a) any director, whenever the director thinks fit; or

(b) any requisitioner as provided for by the Act.

(2) Upon a requisition being made under paragraph (1), an extraordinary general meeting must be convened.

49.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the Act relating to special resolutions and any agreement amongst persons who are entitled to receive notices of general meetings from a company, at least 14 days' notice (exclusive of the day on which the notice is served or treated to be served, but inclusive of the day for which notice is given) of any general meeting must be given to persons entitled to receive notices of general meetings from the company.

(2) A notice of a general meeting must specify the following:

(a) the place at which the general meeting is held;

(b) the date and time of the general meeting;

(c) in case of special business to be transacted at the general meeting, the general nature of that business.

50.—(1) All business that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting is special business.

(2) All business that is transacted at an annual general meeting is special business, except —

(a) the declaration of a dividend;

(b) the consideration of the financial statements, the reports of the auditors and the statements of the directors;

(c) the election of directors in the place of retiring directors; and

(d) the appointment and fixing of the remuneration of the auditors.

Proceedings at general meetings

51.—(1) No business is to be transacted at any general meeting unless a quorum of members is present at the time when the meeting proceeds to business.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in this Constitution, 2 members present in person form a quorum.

(3) In this regulation, “member” includes a person attending as a proxy or as representing a corporation or a limited liability partnership which is a member.

52. If within half an hour after the time appointed for a general meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting —

(a) in the case where the meeting is convened upon the requisition of members, is dissolved; or

(b) in any other case, is adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place, or to another day and at another time and place as the directors may determine.

53. The chairman of a general meeting is —

(a) where the board of directors has appointed a chairman amongst the directors, the chairman; or

(b) where —

(i) the chairman of the board of directors is unwilling to act as the chairman of the general meeting;

(ii) the chairman is not present within 15 minutes after the time appointed for the holding of the general meeting; or

(iii) the board of directors has not appointed a chairman amongst the directors, the member elected by the members present for the purpose of being the chairman of the general meeting.

54.—(1) The chairman may, with the consent of a general meeting at which a quorum is present, and must if so directed by a general meeting, adjourn the general meeting from time to time and from place to place.

(2) No business is to be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the general meeting from which the adjournment took place (called in this regulation the original general meeting).

(3) There is no need to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting unless the adjourned meeting is to be held more than 30 days after the date of the original general meeting.

55.—(1) At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting must be decided on a show of hands unless a poll is (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) demanded —

(a) by the chairman;

(b) by at least 3 members present in person or by proxy;

(c) by any member or members present in person or by proxy and representing not less than 5% of the total voting rights of all the members having the right to vote at the meeting; or

(d) by a member or members holding shares in the company conferring a right to vote at the meeting being shares on which an aggregate sum has been paid up equal to not less than 5% of the total sum paid up on all the shares conferring that right.

(2) Unless a poll is demanded, a declaration by the chairman that a resolution has on a show of hands been carried or carried unanimously, or by a particular majority, or lost, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the company is conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes recorded in favour of or against the resolution.

(3) The demand for a poll may be withdrawn.

56.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), if a poll is demanded it must be taken in such manner and either at once or after an interval or adjournment or otherwise as the chairman directs.

(2) A poll demanded on the election of a chairman or on a question of adjournment must be taken immediately.

(3) The result of the poll is a resolution of the meeting at which the poll was demanded.

57. In the case of an equality of votes, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, the chairman of the meeting at which the show of hands takes place or at which the poll is demanded is entitled to a second or casting vote.

58.—(1) Subject to any rights or restrictions for the time being attached to any class or classes of shares, at meetings of members or classes of members, each member entitled to vote may vote in person or by proxy or by attorney.

(2) On a show of hands every member or representative of a member who is present in person has one vote.

(3) On a poll every member present in person or by proxy or by attorney or other duly authorised representative has one vote for each share the member holds.

59.—(1) In the case of joint holders, the vote of the senior who tenders a vote, whether in person or by proxy, is accepted to the exclusion of the votes of the other joint holders.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), seniority is to be determined by the order in which the names stand in the electronic register of members.

60. A member who is mentally disordered or whose person or estate is liable to be dealt with in any way under the law relating to mental capacity may vote, whether on a show of hands or on a poll, by a person who properly has the management of the estate of the member, and any such person may vote by proxy or attorney.

61. No member is entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by the member in respect of shares in the company have been paid.

62.—(1) No objection may be raised as to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered.

(2) Any objection made in due time must be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision is final and conclusive.

(3) Every vote not disallowed at the meeting is valid for all purposes.

63.—(1) The instrument appointing a proxy must be in writing, in the common or usual form and —

(a) where the appointer is a corporation or a limited liability partnership, either under seal or under the hand of an officer or attorney duly authorised; or

(b) in any other case, under the hand of the appointer or of the attorney of the appointer duly authorised in writing.

(2) A proxy may but need not be a member of the company.

(3) The instrument appointing a proxy is treated as conferring authority to demand or join in demanding a poll.

64. Where an opportunity of voting for or against a resolution is to be conferred on members, the instrument appointing a proxy may be in the following form or such other form as the board of directors may approve:

“I/We*, [name(s)], of [address(es)], being a member/members* of the abovenamed company, appoint [name] of [address], or failing him/her, [name] of [address], as my/our* proxy to vote for me/us* on my/our* behalf at the [annual or extraordinary, as the case may be] general meeting of the company, to be held on [date], and at any adjournment of the meeting.

Signed on [date].

This form is to be used in favour of/against* the resolution.

*Delete whichever is not applicable. [Unless otherwise instructed, the proxy may vote as he or she thinks fit.]”.

65.—(1) The following documents must be deposited at the registered office of the company, or at such other place in Singapore as is specified in the notice convening the meeting by the time specified in paragraph (2) for the purpose of appointing a proxy:

(a) the instrument appointing a proxy;

(b) the power of attorney or other authority, if any, under which the instrument appointing the proxy is signed, or a notarially certified copy of that power of attorney or authority.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1), the time is —

(a) in the case of a poll, not less than 24 hours before the time appointed for the taking of the poll; or

(b) in any other case, not less than 72 hours before the time for holding the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the person named in the instrument proposes to vote.

(3) An instrument of proxy is not valid if paragraph (1) is not complied with.

66.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), a vote given in accordance with the terms of an instrument of proxy or attorney is valid despite —

(a) the previous death or mental disorder of the principal;

(b) the revocation of the instrument or of the authority under which the instrument was executed; or

(c) the transfer of the share in respect of which the instrument is given.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply if an intimation in writing of such death, mental disorder, revocation, or transfer has been received by the company at its registered office before the commencement of the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the instrument is used.

Directors: Appointment, etc.

67.—(1) At the first annual general meeting of the company, all the directors must retire from office.

(2) At every annual general meeting subsequent to the first annual general meeting of the company, one-third of the directors for the time being, or, if their number is not 3 or a multiple of 3, then the number nearest one-third, must retire from office.

68. A retiring director is eligible for re-election.

69. The directors to retire in every year must be those who have been longest in office since their last election, but, as between persons who became directors on the same day, those to retire must (unless they otherwise agree among themselves) be determined by lot.

70.—(1) The company at the meeting at which a director retires may fill the vacated office by electing a person to fill the vacated office.

(2) If the company does not fill the vacated office, the retiring director is, if he or she offers himself or herself for re-election and is not disqualified under the Act from holding office as a director, treated as re-elected, unless

(a) at that meeting it is expressly resolved not to fill the vacated office; or

(b) a resolution for the re-election of that director is put to that meeting and lost.

71. The company may from time to time by ordinary resolution passed at a general meeting increase or reduce the number of directors, and may also determine in what rotation the increased or reduced number is to go out of office.

72.—(1) The directors have power at any time, and from time to time, to appoint any person to be a director, either to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the existing directors, but the total number of directors must not at any time exceed the number fixed in accordance with this Constitution.

(2) Any director appointed under paragraph (1) holds office only until the next annual general meeting, and is then eligible for re-election.

(3) Any director appointed under paragraph (1) must not be taken into account in determining the directors who are to retire by rotation at the next annual general meeting.

73.—(1) The company may by ordinary resolution remove any director before the expiration of his or her period of office, and may by an ordinary resolution appoint another person in place of the removed director.

(2) The person appointed in place of the removed director is subject to retirement at the same time as if the person had become a director on the day on which the director in whose place the person is appointed was last elected a director.

74.—(1) The remuneration of the directors is, from time to time, to be determined by the company in general meeting.

(2) The remuneration of the directors is treated as accruing from day to day.

(3) The directors may also be paid all travelling, hotel, and other expenses properly incurred by them in attending and returning from meetings of the directors or any committee of the directors or general meetings of the company or in connection with the business of the company.

75. The shareholding qualification for directors may be fixed by the company in general meeting.
76. The office of director becomes vacant if the director —
- (a) ceases to be a director by virtue of the Act;
