BizFile+ Portal to Undergo System Upgrade from 10 to 15 Dec 2020

BizFile+, ACRA's online business registration and filing portal, will undergo a major system upgrade and will not be available from Thursday, 10 Dec 2020, 6pm to Tuesday, 15 Dec 2020, 8am.

During this period, BizFile+ users will not be able to lodge any transactions. This includes all business registrations, filings and endorsements, and applications for refunds. Access to business information including the purchase of business information products from the ACRA iShop and data APIs calls from ACRA API Mall will also not be available. The public is advised to complete any urgent and critical BizFile+ transactions before 10 Dec 2020, 6pm.

We apologise for the inconvenience caused, and thank BizFile+ users for their patience and understanding.

RORC Transaction in BizFile+ to Resume in Feb 2021

Effective from 30 Jul 2020, all companies and limited liability partnerships (LLPs), unless exempted, are required to lodge the information maintained in their Register of Registrable Controllers (RORC) with ACRA's central non-public register, in addition to maintaining their own RORC either in their registered office address or at the office of their authorised filing agent.

The "Update Register of Registrable Controllers (RORC)" transaction in BizFile+ portal was suspended in Sep 2020, and will remain suspended until Jan 2021. The RORC transaction is scheduled to resume in Feb 2021 and companies and LLPs will be given up to 30 Jun 2021 to lodge the RORC information with ACRA.

Singapore Public Sector Outcomes Review (SPOR) 2020

The SPOR is a biennial report published by the Ministry of Finance which takes stock of how Singapore has fared in key areas of national interest. According to the report, Singapore continues to be one of the most pro-business countries globally. In 2020, the World Bank's Ease of Doing Business Index ranked Singapore as the second easiest place to do business and fourth in the world for starting a business, where it takes only 1.5 days to start a business here. In line with our mission to provide a trusted and vibrant business environment in Singapore, ACRA has contributed to facilitating the ease of starting a business by streamlining our registration processes and reducing administrative burden. For example, In 2017, ACRA cut red tape for businesses by removing the requirement for a common seal in the execution of documents.
