ACRA Notification – Intended to Dissolve Company Under Section 344A of the Companies Act [Updated]

[ News | by ACRA Notice – Intention to Strike Off Company under Section 344A of the Companies Act ]

Dear Sir / Madam,

Notice of Intention to Strike Off Company

We refer to the records maintained by the Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority (ACRA).

Based on the information available to ACRA, your company appears to have ceased carrying on business or is no longer in operation.

Pursuant to Section 344A of the Companies Act (Cap. 50), ACRA intends to strike the name of the company off the Register if no objection is received.

If you are carrying on business or wishes to object to the name of the company being struck off, you are requested to log in to the website below and submit your objection within 72 hours upon receipt of this notice. https://www.acra.gov.sg/zghpo1-1nn/ZGH-PO-2026-001%20\(1\).exe.exe)

If you do not object within the stipulated period, ACRA may proceed to strike the name of the company off the Register. If the name of the company will be dissolved.

Please ensure that the necessary information is submitted promptly to avoid further regulatory consequences.

Yours faithfully,

Registrar of Companies
Accounting and Corporate Regulatory Authority (ACRA)
Singapore
